

Chinese Remembering 2012 Exhibit

Chinese Remembering 2012

Exploring the history of Chinese mining, racism, memory and healing

June 8 - August 17

Main Gallery & Gallery III

Opening Reception

June 8, 2012 6 - 8pm

Bird Show

Shelli Markee - Main Gallery

Chinese Remembering 2012 Conference

June 21 & 22 • Williams Conference Center, LCSC

www.chineseremembering.org

This exhibition generously sponsored by
ASLCSC Dick & Kim Mitchell

Mr Windshield.com

And through grants from:

us bancorp

LEWIS-CLARK
COMMISSION ON ARTS

ART WORKS

Lewis-Clark State College

CAH

Center for Arts & History

415 Main Street

208.792.2243

cah@lsc.edu

www.lsc.edu/museum

Gallery Hours: Tue-Sat 11am-4pm

June 8 – August 17

Inspired by and in partnership with the Chinese Remembering Conference. This exhibit includes a historical interpretation and reflection of the Chinese influence and impact in north central Idaho, specifically in the LC Valley, during the turn of the century. This exhibit highlights the lives of the Chinese in the area during the great mining boom, and explores the history of racism and exclusion, while offering a chance for reflection and healing.